OHIO COUNTY COUNTRY FAIR

To describe the Ohio County Country Fair at a glimpse, it is everything a fair was intended to be. The organization is a non-profit, educational corporation. The mission of the Fair is promotion of agricultural related products and services. Uniquely, this promotion is directed at the non-agricultural public. The Ohio County Country Fair, Inc. owns few physical assets. The Fair's assets are the volunteers who organize and put on this event each year.

The Ohio County Country Fair is held each year in conjunction with Oglebayfest at Oglebay Park in Wheeling, WV. As an integrated part of Oglebayfest, the Fair draws around 60,000 visitors. The Ohio County Country Fair prides itself on being open to the public, meaning no one is charged for admission. Exhibited for premiums are fruits and vegetables, canned goods, baked goods, needlework, quilts, eggs, flower arrangements, scarecrows, pumpkin carvings, and 4-H exhibits. Agricultural and home economic techniques are demonstrated. Farm animals are on hand for attendees to see and touch. Agriculturally related contests are held and are very popular. The Main Tent houses displays from various agricultural trade groups and affiliated organizations.

The Ohio County Country Fair's calling card is its appearance in an empty, grassy field. Over the period of one week, Oglebay Park's Site I is transformed. The Fair appears, occurs Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and the field is returned to an empty, grassy field.

Overall, the Ohio County Country Fair is an intense educational event directed towards making people aware that agriculture is what feeds them. The message is wrapped up in a festive get the public involved atmosphere.

Funding for the Ohio County Country Fair is generally secured through donations. The Fair operates on approximately a fifty thousand dollar budget. The Ohio County Commission is the largest donor, with the West Virginia Division of Culture and History coming in second. Combined, they contribute nearly 50% of the funding. The remainder is made up of corporate and private donations.

LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS
RULES AND REGULATIONS

Exhibits of livestock at the Ohio County Country Fair are done for educational purposes. Consumers seldom see a live animal. Animals are brought to the Fair in an effort to provide an experience-based educational opportunity to fair goers.

Participants have the opportunity to see farm animals and talk with the producers. Exhibits generally represent breeds of animals typically found on local farms. Those exhibiting animals do so through an interest in public awareness. As the public views exhibits in the Livestock Tent, exhibitors are to make an effort to interact with the public regarding the purpose and uses of the animal. Exhibitors should be prepared to provide information regarding the breed, including consumer and end product use. Differences in breeds will be pointed out and if appropriate, a sampling of products may be made available.

Our mission is to promote animal agriculture to the general public. Every effort is to be made to portray a positive image.

The Ohio County Country Fair, Inc. will not be held responsible for any injury or damage associated with the Fair.

WV CHAMPIONSHIP PONY PULL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The distance between the foul lines is to be 13 feet, 6 inches.
2. The sled shall be pulled 13 feet, 6 inches.
3. Each driver will be given three pulls to pull the sled.
4. A team coming to the sled will be given three passes to hook. If not hooked after the third pass, that is a pull, regardless of which pull they are making. A pass is up to the decision of the judges. When the sled is moved two feet or more, it will be considered a pull for any reason, except equipment failure. Out of the trace, if moved two feet is a pull.
5. There shall be at least three judges at all times. Decisions made by the judges are final. Judges will be secured by the Superintendent.
6. When ponies are called on, the driver and hitcher shall stay behind the hook at all times. The team must remain hooked to take a second pull.
7. After the second pull, a driver must unhook his team and wait his turn for his third pull.
8. There will be no heading to get hooked to the sled. If at anytime a team has to be headed, they must be unhooked from the sled and come back to it. That is considered as one pass at the sled. An extension will be added to the sled for hooking.
9. There is to be only one driver for each team. Drivers cannot be changed after the contest has started, unless there is a valid reason.
10. All ponies must stay within the foul lines while pulling. If they step on or over the ropes, they get no distance. The decisions of the judges are final.
11. Each team will be given three minutes to hook to the sled and get started after the announcer calls for them. If the team is not hooked and started in the three minutes, they forfeit the pull regardless of which pull they are making. The only exception is for an equipment breakdown.
12. The sled will be spotted at 2500# for lightweights and 3000# for all other classes. The judges have the right to have the sled spotted sooner, if in their judgment it is needed for a fair contest.
13. After the pull has started, there will be no more than 500# added at any one time. Each class will be pulled separate, unless teamsters agree to pull together because of a lack of participation.
14. Teams of ponies in the Lightweight class must not weigh more than 1100#; Middleweight-1400#; Heavyweight-1700#; and Super Heavyweight-2000#.
15. All teams entering the contest must be weighed-in before their class starts to pull. Weigh-in begins at 9:00 a.m. and the pull starts at 12:00 Noon.
16. All ponies will be allowed only once on the scales. If caught changing ponies after being weighed, the teamster will be barred from the contest.
17. There will be three weigh masters, who will be selected by the Superintendent.
18. Ponies may be weighed with or without halters. All ponies must pull in the class they weigh. They cannot pull in any class of their choice. A pony can only pull in one class.
19. In the event that a class has only one entry, the team must pull on one load.
20. Any pony or ponies thought to have been given a stimulant before or during this contest will be given a saliva test. All teamsters must submit their ponies to this test if requested. Those who refuse the test will be disqualified.
